

The Analysis of Verbal Behavior is primarily for the original publication of papers relevant to a behavioral analysis of verbal behavior. The journal is published annually by the Verbal Behavior Special Interest Group (VBSIG) of the Association for Behavior Analysis (ABA). Authors are encouraged to submit theoretical or empirical papers to the Editor, Mark L. Sundberg, 1236 Stafford Ave., Concord, California 94521. Papers should be relevant to at least one of the following topics: the elementary verbal operants, autoclitics, multiple control, private events, rule-governed behavior, epistemology, scientific verbal behavior, language acquisition, language assessment and training, second languages, pedagogy, the verbal behavior of nonhumans, and verbal behavior research methodology. All manuscripts will be reviewed by the Editor and selected members of the Editorial Board. ABA is not responsible for the content of this journal.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Northern California Association for Behavior
Analysis
Sixth Annual Conference
March 6-8, 1987
The Dunfey Hotel, San Mateo, California

The purpose of NCABA is to provide a forum for the acquisition, evaluation and dissemination of information regarding behavior analysis. Submissions of papers concerning theoretical, experimental and applied analyses of behavior are encouraged. We also welcome submissions from areas such as behavioral medicine, systems analysis, behavioral pharmacology, computer technology, education, special education, etc.

This year's conference will include invited addresses, workshops, panel discussions, paper and poster presentations, and exhibits. All submissions should include the title of the presentation, 2 copies of a 500 word summary, relevant data, audio-visual requests, and a self-addressed, stamped post card. The submission deadline is December 1, 1986. For information regarding membership, or conference registration, contact:
